Edinburgh, Monday, June 2, 1729.

From a Weekly Journal, May 24.

FROM Cadix we understand, that his Catholic Majesty's Deafness continues in respect to the Indulgs; nor can any of the State Physicians tell us when 'tis like to be cured.

PRESENTMENTS of the Grand Jury for the County of Middlesex, made last Easter Term.

WE the Grand Jury of the County of Middlesex, sworn to Enquire for our Sovereign Lord the King and the Body of this Country, have in a particular Manner considered the learn'd and excellent Charge delivered to us by this Honourable Court at our first Meeting; and in Obedience thereto, have examined into the Grievances and Offences recommended to us: And having seen in publick Prints several Presentments made by former Grand Juries of this County this Year, which were religiously design'd for Suppression of Vice and Immorality, and particularly that of Balls and Masquerades, which we are now informed were promoted and carried on by one John James Heydeger, at the King's Theatre in Haymarket, against whom there has been yet no Prosecution, or any other Means used to prevent the same for the future:

We the Grand Jury do therefore present the said John James Heydeger for the said Offence, as the principal Promoter of Vice and Immorality, in Defiance of the Laws of this Land, to the great Scandal of Religion, the Disturbance of his Majesty's Government, and to the Damage of many of his Subjects.

WE the Grand Jary of the County of Middlesex sworn to Inquire, &c. cannot without the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, reflect upon the many and open Attempts lately made to overthrow and extirpate our most holy Religion, and to defraud those good Morals and Principles, on which the Security of our happy Establishment and the future Welfare of Mankind depend: From which pernicious Principles, so industriously propagated, we must ascribe that Torrent of Corruption, Bribery and Death of Trust, that have lately broke into all Orders and Degrees of Men among us, and which we have too good Reason to suspect have brought down from Heaven upon us those many Miseries and Calamities with which it hath pleased to God to afflict this once happy Nation. The Remedy of which will prove to be of greater Security and Glory to his Majesty's Reign, than can be acquired by any Military Force at home, or the strongest Alliances abroad, and be most conducive to render his Majesty's Administration easy.

In Duty therefore to God, as faithful Subjects to the King, and in Charity to our Fellow-Subjects; We the Grand Jury do Present the Author, Printer and Publisher of the London Journal of Saturday the 26th of April, 1729, wherein many blasphemous and irreligious Expressions are contained, ridiculing the Articles of our Faith; and and we pray this honourable Court to bring the Offenders to condign Punishment.

From the Daily Post-Boy, May 24.

Petersburg, May 10. Orders are sent to the Governor of Revel, to hasten with all Speed the Fortifications of the Island of Nargen.

Dresden, May 26. Letters from Warsaw advise, that the Diet of Poland is to meet at Grodno the 22d of August.

London, May 24. Two Sons and one Daughter of the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Galloway are preparing to be inoculated for the Small Pox.

All the four Daughters of the Rt. Hon. the L. Carteret are preparing themselves to be inoculated for the Small Pox.

Tuesday last one of Abp. Parker's Antiquities of the Britannick Church, University of Cambridge, &c. whereof only 25 Copies were printed in 1572, was sold for 44 l. at the late Mr. Rawlinson's Sale of Books.

On Saturday Mr. Jasper Jeffreys received an annymous Letter, commanding him to send 45 l. to a certain Place without Delay, for the Use of the Writer, and threatening him with Death without Mercy in case of Neglect.

Wye's Letter verbatim, London, May 27.

Since our last arrived the Mails from France, and one from Holland.

ALL the Discourse is upon the Fleet, and its sailing; which some are of Opinion is suspended 'till the Arrival of another Express from our Plenipotentiaries, which is expected in a few Days. There came one the Close of last Week with Dispatches from our Minister Mr. Keen at the Spanish Court; but we know not the Contents thereof. Mean-time 'tis certain that his Majesty has declared, that his Plenipotentiaries shall be recalled in case the King of Spain did not speedily remove those Difficulties which protract the pacifick Negotiations, and that this Declaration has been sent to Spain in order to have his Catholick Majesty's Answer thereto.

They write from Portsmouth, that the Men of War at Spithead remain drawn up in a Half-moon, or Line of Battle; Sir Charles Wager in the Cornwall is in the Center, and Stern-most Ship in the Rear, is near the Place called Mark Gilkicker: All which is done in expectation that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will be there on Thursday or Friday next.

By the Holland Mail we have nothing material either from Compeigne or Soissons. They write from Utrecht of the 2d of June N. S. that the Prince of Nassau-Orange went that Morning at 9 out of St. Katharine's Gate; and when he got Sight of the King of Great Britain's Coach, he got out of his own, and advanced towards that of his Majesty, who also descended from his Coach to receive the Prince's Compliment; and having mutually embraced with great Tenderness and Marks of Esteem, his Majesty proceeded on his Journey to Hanover.

Yesterday the East India Company received the good News of 3 of their Ships, viz. the Duke of Cumberland from Bombay, and Macclesfield and Cessar both from China, being safely arrived in the towns.

Given out by some last Saturday, as though the Spaniards were a going to besiege Portmahon: But 'tis look'd upon as false and groundless, as the former Reports that were raised of the Spaniards having renewed the Siege of Gibraltar.

We hear from the Downs, that his Majesty's Ships of War have pressed most of the Seamen on board the East India Ships arrived there.

By the Spanish Town-factor Captain Grey, from Jamaica, came Letters this Day, advising, that the Chatham Man of War was sailed with some trading Sloops over to the Spanish Coast; but upon Information that the Spanish Men of War which had taken the 2 Dutch Ships formerly mentioned, had in all Appearance a Design upon her likewise, the Anglesey Man of War was ordered to go to her Assistance, and others were careening and clearing to sail also to the said Coast, and cruise there, and make Reprisals if Need be: However, as the Spaniards have notice of the new Orders for the English Ships to make Reprisals, it was believed they would be cautious how they behaved for the future.

The famous Captain Wood Rogers set out this Day for Portsmouth, to imbark on board a Ship for his Government of the Island of Providence in America. This Captain sailed round most or all the known Parts of the World, in the Duke and Duchess's Privateers.

The famous C. Resseldēn lately performed an Operation on a Boy of 8 Years old, and took from him a Stone as large as a Pullet's Egg, so expeditiously that the whole was over, and the Child put to Bed in less than a Minute and a half, and is like to do well.

From the Daily Post Boy, May 27.

Hague, June 31. Last Tuesday Morning about 8 the King of Great Britain arrived at Henlietsluys from Helvoetsluys, in Mr. Rosendael's Coach. After Dinner his Majesty came up the Maes with a fine Gale. In passing by Rotterdam, the King was saluted by several Piece of Cannon, planted along the Banks of the Maes, which was covered with Yachts and Boats; and his Majesty, who was in perfect Health, had the Goodness to let every Body see him. On Wednesday Morning the King came on Shore, and pursued his Journey with 3 of his own Coaches and 3 Baggage-waggons, with 6 Horses

For ses each, escorted with an Officer and 15 private Gentlemen of the Horse Guards, to Utrecht, where his Majesty arrived about Half an hour past so before Noon, and was received out of Town by the Prince of Nassau-Orange, &c. His Majesty staid no longer at Utrecht than till his Horses were changed; went through the City, and lay at Appledorn, without accepting the Palace of the Loo, or the E. of Albemarle's Seat of Wroth, tho' they are both upon the Road. The Count de la Forest was in the Coach with the King, who proposed to be at Hanover Tomorrow after Noon.

It was remarked, That the Marquis of Blandford did not wait upon the King, in his Passage through Utrecht, notwithstanding his being there ever since the Consummation of his Marriage with the Daughter of Mr. de Jonge, one of the Burgo masters, upon whom 'tis reported his Lordship has settled 16000 Florins a year.

Baron Hartoff, Privy Councillor, followed on the Day after he went to Utrecht; but the Lord Viscount Townshend, his Son, and the Lord Torrington are come hither; and after some Conferences with the principal Members of this Republick, the Lord Townshend will proceed to Hanover.

The States of Holland have under Consideration the Affair of the Finances, and that of the Equipment of a Squadron of 12 Men of War; but the Design of this Squadron is kept a Secret; none of us knowing whether it is to act in Concert with the British Squadron, or separately from it.

The Affair of Signor Bichi seems to run Retrograde, the King of Portugal having abated much of his former Animosity against the Pope, as we long ago foretold. Thus is that Gentleman likely, after all, to be sacrificed to the Resentment of the Court of Rome, who have such an unaccountable Influence o'er the Princes of their Communion, that no Secular Power is able to withstand it.

If we may Credit the Letters we receive from Cassel, the King of Sweden will take a Tour into Germany this Summer, to visit the Landgrave his Father, and to have an Interview with the King of Great Britain: But we can't say the King of Prussia will be of the Party; the Imperial Court having, in our Apprehension, taken too fast hold of his Prussian Majesty and his Council, for us to flatter our selves with his happy Return to the Interests of the Allies of Hanover.

The Obsturacy of the States of Hungary, upon whom neither Threats nor Promises can prevail to grant the Subsidies demanded by th' Emperor, does plagiulily embarrass the Court of Vienna. The Imperial Ministers do remark on this Occasion, that it is a Sign the Pacifications of Europe stand upon a precarious Foot, that the Turks are making so vast Preparations for War; or else the Spirit of Ragotski would not so plainly preside in the Diet of Hungary. Thus far---- But, sic vos non vobis mellificatis, apes.

London, May 27. By private Letters from Glamorganshire in Wales we have an Account, that the Small Pox rages there is somuch, that several whole Families have died of the same.

Lisbon, May 14. On the 1st Instant sailed the Marmaduke, Captain Areskine, for London.

Rotterdam, May 31. Arrived in the Maes Four Merchant-ships from Scotland and England.

S. S. Stock, 100, 3 8ths.

Edinburgh, June 2. Thursday last, being the 29th May, was solemnized here, in grateful Commemoration of the Restauratiion of the Royal Family.

On Friday Morning about 6, departed this Life at his Lodgings in this City, the Honourable James Hamilton of Pancaitland, one of the Senators of the College of Justice.

The same Day died in the Castle Mts. Bucknel, Widow of the late Fort-Major.

This Day (being the 17th of the Moon) 'tis High Water at Leith at 3 o'Clock, 6 Minutes. Tomorrow, at 3, 54 Min. On Wednesday, at 4, 42 Min.
